

Business Support Systems

Business Support Systems (BSS) vertical is able to integrate, design and develop business support systems to enable clients to leverage the optimal business benefit. Our collaboration with principles such as Oracle, IBM and HCL that provide world-class software solutions enables AHLBS to offer tailor-made designs to suit specific client requirements. We support organizations to transform operations and reduce non-value adding activities and processes, identify best practices that could be implemented through process improvements that results in the reduction of costs and transform businesses into High Performing entities. AHLBS counts many years of experience in providing tailor-made solutions specific to the Agricultural and Food ingredient industries.

Some significant facts are;

- Extensive experience in project management and implementation of business support systems
- Maintaining and troubleshooting issues of operational systems
- Collaborations with world-class software solution providers
- Development and Deployment of totally customized solutions
- Highly qualified team of top industry professionals

Packaged Solution Implementation

AHLBS uses a wide range of world-renowned applications to handle the different business requirements of our customers. Our Team members are highly skilled and count many years of experience in providing implementation services for applications such as JD Edwards, HARP, Hyperion, File Net and Oracle E-biz. The team also has considerable experience in configuring high availability and DR solutions for these applications.

Application Support Services

The operational areas covered by the BSS vertical at AHLBS include the support and maintenance of applications such as Oracle E-biz, Hyperion, JD Edwards, File Net etc. as well the Management of Oracle DB, Microsoft SQL and other databases.