

Consultancy and Projects

Consultancy and Projects services will assist our clients in identifying and delivering greater value to their customers with greater pace and strategic agility.

We at AHLBS have accumulated extensive knowledge through our years of undertaking business systems and ICT related services for our clients. We are able to assist our clients in identifying and delivering greater value to their customers with greater pace and strategic agility. We are in a position to offer our advice on MIS systems implementation, data warehousing facilities, process and systems re-engineering expertise, ERP systems implementations and ICT related services to cater to your distinctive business needs.

We have an established and robust project governance framework supported by Enterprise Project Management (EPM) solutions to deliver best results to our clients. The Company's expertise in handling these various projects has been derived in multiple industry segments in the ASEAN Region.

Some significant facts include:

- Extensive knowledge gathered through implementation, upgrading, maintenance and monitoring of technology related assets and services
- Up-to-date project management and monitoring systems
- Customized business solution designs
- Implementation of ISO 27001 frameworks